BACHELOR OF FINE ARTS DEGREE REQUIREMENTS:

To receive the Bachelor of Fine Arts degree, you must meet the requirements of the College of Art and complete a minimum of 39 academic credit units in the College of Arts & Sciences.

Course attributes correlate to the required areas of the curriculum. The specified number of credit units in each of the areas listed below is required for the BFA:

College Writing I (3 units): College Writing I is required in the first year. To fulfill the writing requirement, you must earn a “C-” or better. A student earning lower than a “C-” is required to enroll in College Writing I a second time or take another Writing course.

Humanities (3 units): Courses that examine the human condition as it has been documented and expressed in both past and contemporary times. This area includes courses from Literature (both in English and in other languages), Classics, History, Philosophy and Religious Studies as well as the creative arts such as Dance, Drama, Music and Writing. (Look for: Art: HUM).

Natural Sciences or Mathematics (3 units): These courses seek to understand the natural and physical world, using objective and empirical observation and controlled experimentation. This area includes courses from Biology, Chemistry, Environmental Biology or Policy, Earth and Planetary Sciences, Mathematics and Physics, as well as some courses from departments such as Anthropology and Psychology. (Look for: Art: NSM).

Social & Behavior Sciences (3 units): These courses use qualitative and quantitative observation to explore the social relationships within society and forms of human behavior. This area includes courses from Anthropology, Economics, Education, International & Area Studies, Political Science and Psychology and courses from other areas including Interdisciplinary Studies. (Look for: Art SSC).

Electives in Arts & Sciences (12 units) include courses in Arts & Sciences except physical education, lessons, independent study and internships.

Art History/Visual Culture (15 units): Two one-semester introductory courses (L01 113 and L01 215) and three additional courses. (Look for: Art AH). Visual Culture courses with an F20 or X10 course number do not fulfill the 39 units of Arts & Sciences required for the BFA degree. Students will need to substitute these credits with additional units in Arts & Sciences to meet the 39 unit requirement.

Academic Electives (9 units): Course in Architecture, Art, Design, Arts & Sciences, Business and Engineering except physical education, lessons, independent study, internships, Advanced Placement, International Baccalaureate or transfer credit.

Sam Fox Foundation Sequence (5 units) You will take Drawing I and Practices in Architecture + Art + Design I & II with first-year Architecture students.

Art or Design Major Requirements (51 units) In the first year, you take Drawing I in the fall, Drawing II in the spring and one semester each of 2-D and 3-D Design.

During the second year, you begin courses in one of the following major areas: Art, (with optional Concentrations in Painting, Photography, Printmaking and Sculpture), Communication Design and Fashion Design.

Your last two years include intense study in your chosen focus area and a capstone experience. Your final year culminates with a public presentation or exhibition of work.

Sam Fox Commons (9 units) courses are offered to both art and architecture students. The courses offer opportunities to study “in between” art and architecture and expose you to different methods and ways of thinking. These courses incorporate topics such as sustainability, public practice and new technologies and will complement and enhance your chosen area of study. (9 units)

Electives (15 units) Courses in Architecture, Art, Design, Arts & Sciences, Business and Engineering including physical education, lessons, independent study, internships, Advanced Placement, International Baccalaureate or transfer credit

No credit is awarded for courses taken in University College.
Degree Requirements – Art (Sculpture Concentration):

Students earn the Bachelor of Fine Arts degree with a Major in Art and may opt to pursue a concentration in Sculpture. To earn a concentration, you must take at least 15 units of coursework in that area. Studio: Art Practice courses are offered in Drawing, Painting, Photography, Printmaking, Sculpture and Time-Based Media.
