

Opportunities for civic engagement

Use this comprehensive list of resources for finding ways to engage with and think critically about St. Louis and pressing social issues. Find examples of projects and more information at:

→ samfoxschool.wustl.edu/engage

Classes (Spring 2018)

UNDERGRADUATE COURSES

Design Process

A46 ARCH 209 | T Th 10:00-11:30a

Visual Journalism and Reportage Drawing

F10 ART 336A | M W 1:00-4:00p

Design As a Catalyst for Change

F10 ART 432F | M W 8:30-11:30a

Explore & Contribute: Collaboration between Washington University & Henry Elementary School

A46 ARCH 490A | M 9:15-10:15a M 1-2p

UNDERGRADUATE & GRADUATE COURSES

Tale of Two Cities: Documenting Our Divides

F20 ART 229F | M W 1:00-4:00p

Visualizing Segregation: A History of St. Louis, Chicago and New Orleans

A46 ARCH 306M | T Th 10:00-11:30a

Anthropology of Design: Artifacts, Expertise, and Insurgency

L48 Anthro 333B | T Th 4:00-5:30p

Decoding Sustainability

A46 ARCH 434R | T Th 11:30a-1:00p

NOMA National Design Competition

A46 ARCH 486A | T 6:00-8:30p

The Unruly City

A46 ARCH 529G | F 8:30-11:30a

GRADUATE COURSES

Landscape Ecology

A48 LAND 551A | T 1:00-4:00p

Metropolitan Sustainability

A49 MUD 658 | T 6:00-9:00p

Outside Of Class

UNIVERSITY PROGRAMS & ORGANIZATIONS

Gephardt Institute for Civic & Community Engagement

Promote civic engagement throughout WashU.

ISSUES Magazine

Explore the link between design and social issues.

Design For America

Use human-centered design for local and social impact.

Alberti: Architecture for Young People

Teach design and sustainability to 4th-10th graders.

Design Connection: WashUCity

Mentor graphic design students at UCity High School.

Have questions? Contact Liz Kramer at kramer@wustl.edu.