

STUDENT FINANCIAL RESOURCES

Undergraduate students receiving financial aid have been assigned a Financial Counselor through Washington University's Student Financial Services office. If you have concerns regarding financial aid or how to obtain additional financial assistance – please log onto WEBSTAC to identify your assigned Financial Counselor and schedule an appointment.

- If your financial situation has changed since admission to the Sam Fox School, and you seek financial guidance, you can reach a Financial Counselor at financial@wustl.edu or 888-547-6670. In addition, Financial Counselors are always on hand at the Student Financial Services office, located in Brookings Hall.

All inquiries pertaining to financial aid for the Graduate School of Architecture & Urban Design and the Graduate School of Art should be directed to Todd Farr at 314-935-3642 or via email at tfarr@wustl.edu.

International Students should seek the assistance of an international student advisor through the Office for International Students and Scholars. Appointment information is available at <https://oiss.wustl.edu/contact-us/student-walk-in/>.

The Career Center provides access to resources such as paid internships and assistance with funding for career development initiatives. For additional information, please contact Martin Padilla at 314-935-4157 or via email at mpadilla@wustl.edu or Jen Meyer at 314-935-9298 or via email at jennifer.meyer@wustl.edu.

On occasion, the Sam Fox School provides funds to assist with travel for study abroad, career development Road Show travel, supplies, etc. Please contact Kim McCabe at kmccabe22@wustl.edu (Undergraduate Art and Architecture), Ellen Bailey at ebailey@wustl.edu (Graduate Architecture), or Jordan McGirk at jordanm@wustl.edu (Graduate Art) for additional information.

To schedule an appointment to discuss financial concerns not outlined above, please contact Georgia Binnington, Associate Dean of Students, via email at gbinning@wustl.edu.
